PackPlus: India's Definitive Packaging & Processing Platform

As India's packaging industry prepares for its next phase of growth, PackPlus continues to serve as the country's most comprehensive, pan-India business platform, connecting manufacturers, brand owners, converters, and solution providers across the packaging, converting and supply chain industries.

With two decades of industry leadership, PackPlus 2025 acted as a strategic bridge between India's established manufacturing centres and its emerging growth markets, setting the stage for the landmark 20th edition in 2026.

Pan-India Visitor Footprint with High Business Relevance

PackPlus 2025 attracted visitors from across India's key industrial, commercial, and consumption centres, reflecting the show's national relevance rather than regional dependence.

Strong participation from India's primary decision-making and procurement hubs

Representation from manufacturing clusters, consumption markets, and logistics corridors

A healthy mix of mature markets and emerging industrial states

Recap of PackPlus 2025

PackPlus 2025, held from 31st July -02nd August at Pragati Maidan, New Delhi, reaffirmed its position as India's premier trade show for the packaging, converting, and supply chain industries.

Industry Demand & Market Signals

Cross-Sector Industry Representation

PackPlus 2025 saw participation from India's most packaging-intensive industries, reflecting both current demand and future investment cycles.

Key industries represented:

- Packaging & Converting
- Automation & Smart Manufacturing
- Food & Beverage Processing
- Printing & Paper
- Agro, FMCG & Retail
- Pharmaceuticals, Chemicals & Personal Care
- Logistics & Supply Chain

Market Insight:

The convergence of packaging, automation, and processing highlights a clear industry shift toward:

- Higher throughput
- Integrated solutions
- Compliance-ready operations
- Scalable manufacturing models

What Buyers Were Actively Looking For

Across sectors, buyer conversations at PackPlus 2025 centred on:

- End-to-end packaging lines
- Automation to offset labour and cost pressures
- Efficiency, uptime, and faster ROI
- Flexible, paper-based, and value-added packaging

Key Takeaway:

PackPlus has evolved into a solution discovery and evaluation platform, where buyers arrive with defined needs and investment intent.

International PACKAGING CONCLAVE

International Packaging Conclave 2025

Theme: Green Packaging –
Packaging with a Purpose

Alongside the exhibition, PackPlus 2025 hosted the International Packaging Conclave – a focused knowledge platform that brought together industry leaders and experts to discuss key trends and challenges shaping the packaging sector.

The conclave facilitated meaningful discussions around sustainability, responsible material usage, and efficient manufacturing practices, reinforcing PackPlus' role as a platform for informed industry dialogue beyond the exhibition floor.

20 YEARS OF PACKPLUS One Industry Benchmark.

As PackPlus approaches its 20th edition in 2026, the show stands as a trusted growth partner to India's packaging ecosystem.

Over two decades, PackPlus has:

Grown alongside India's manufacturing ambitions

Adapted to industry shifts - from manual to automated, from commodity to value-added

Remained the only platform covering the entire packaging value chain

The 20th edition will be a celebration of:

Industry progress

Innovation leadership

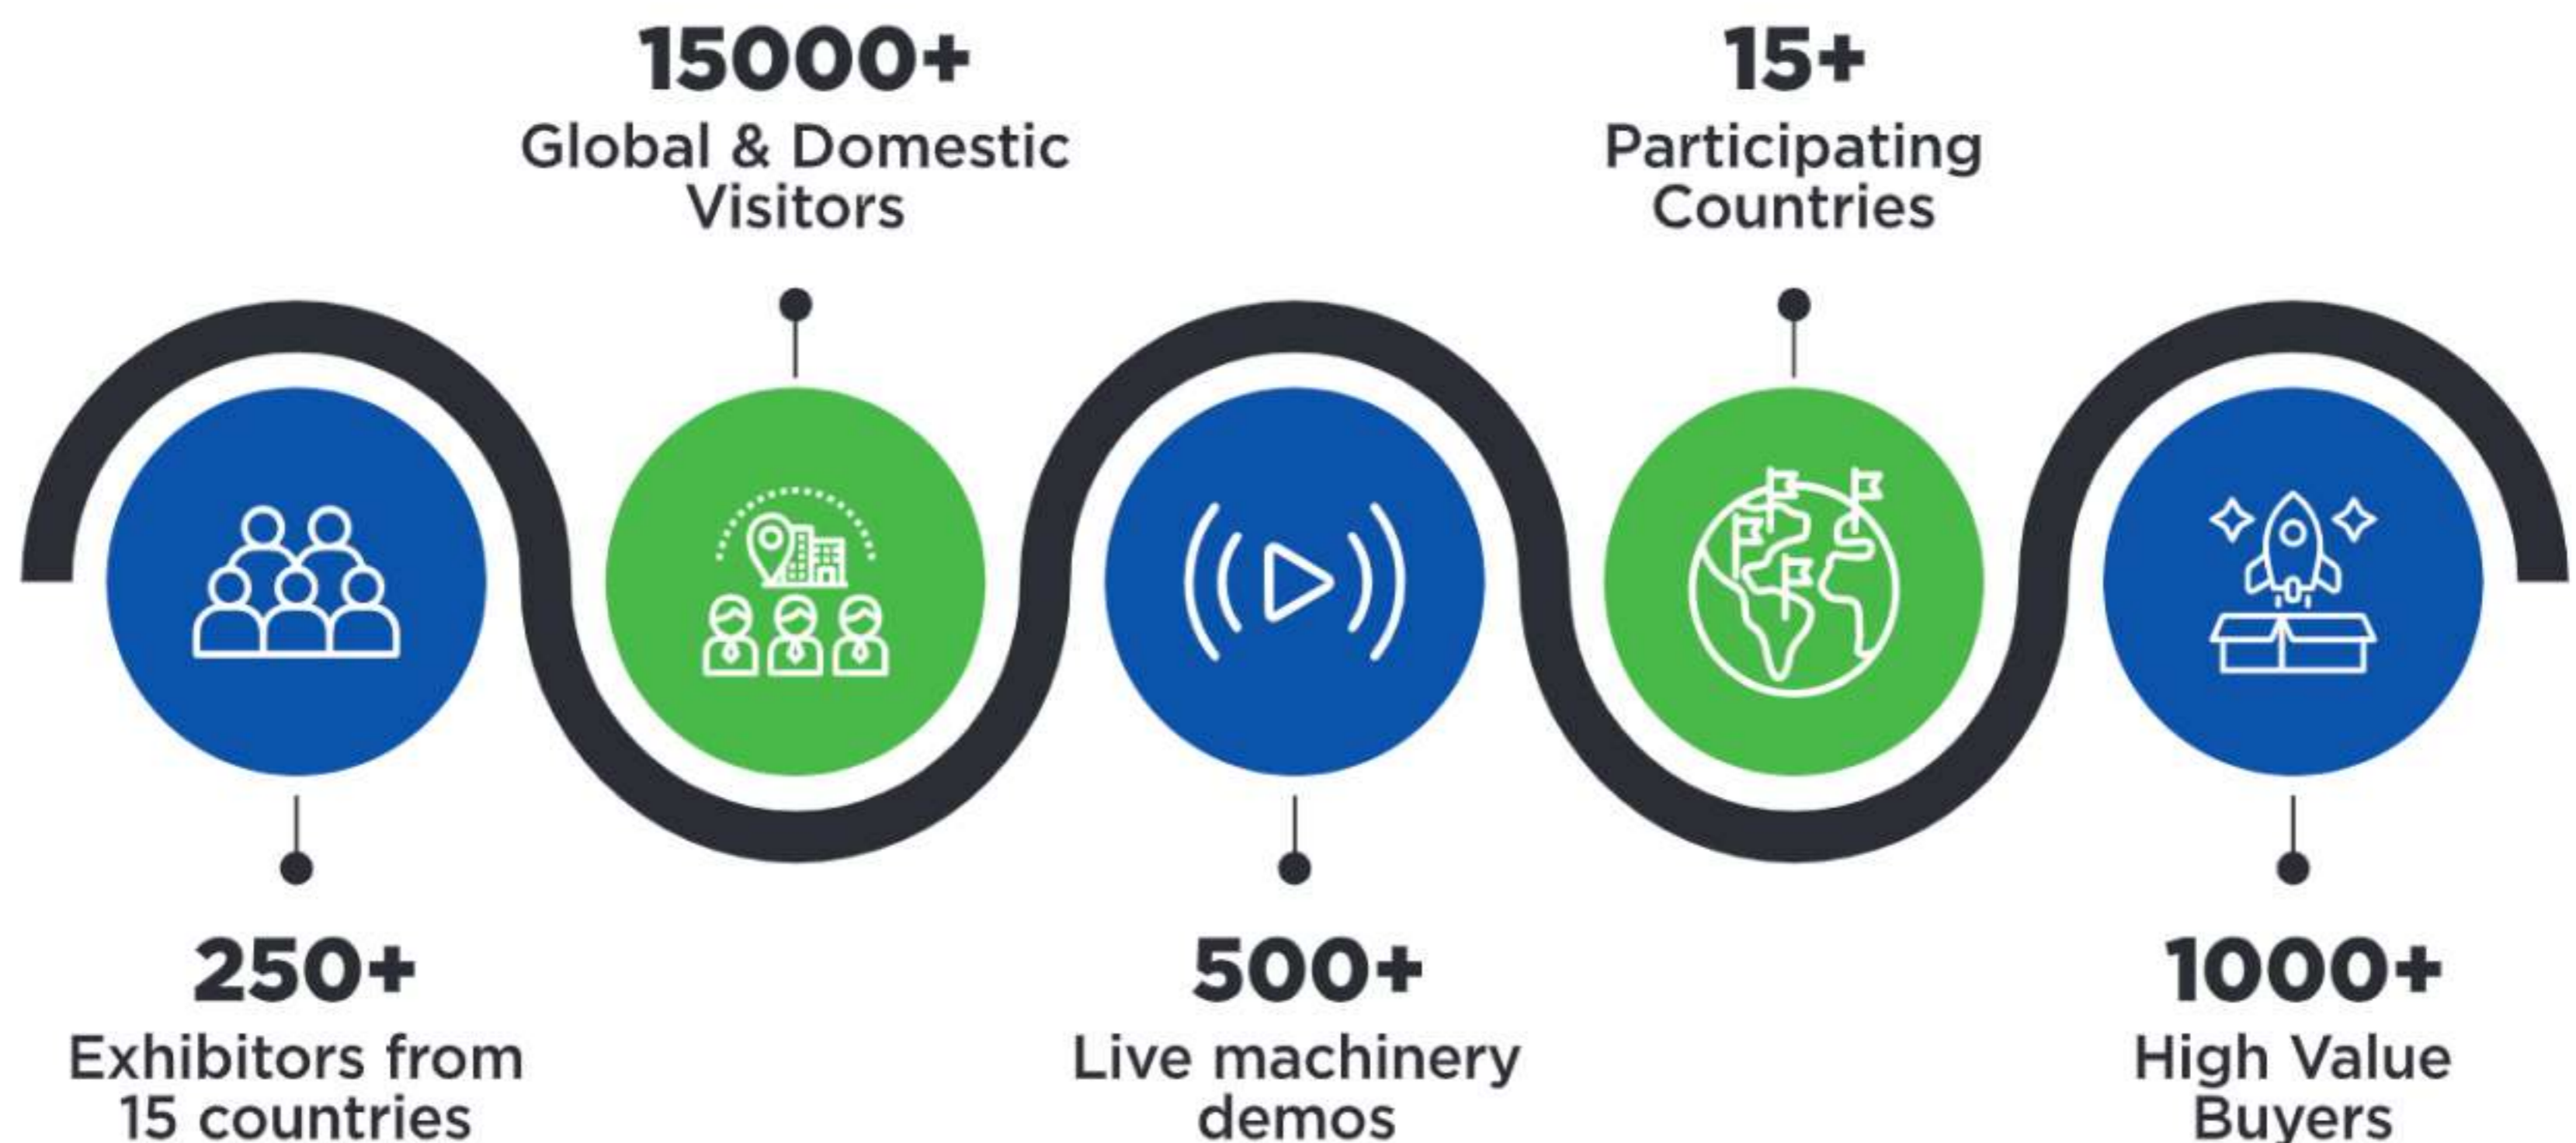

Business partnerships built over decades

The future of packaging in India

International Packaging Conclave 2026 — Industry in Conversation

A key highlight of PackPlus is the International Packaging Conclave, a curated knowledge platform that brings together industry leaders, policymakers, brand owners, and solution providers to engage in meaningful dialogue on the realities shaping the packaging industry.

Unlike generic conference formats, the conclave is designed to address what is actually working on the ground — and what is not.
